1 ETEXT TO THE LIBRARY

This section describes the Access method & Steps a user needs to follow to access the titles the Institution has subscribed on Wiley Digital Textbook Platform.

1.1 How can Students access the eLibrary Online?

This section explains how users can access the eLibrary (titles subscribed by their Institution).

- 1. Open the Wiley Digital Textbook website in your Internet browser within your Institution IP.
- 2. Once the Institution is recognized using the IP address, the system prompts the users to create their personal account or login if they have already created a personal account.

3. Click on "Register" to create your personal account (mandatory for all new users). An email notification will be sent to you. Please complete the verification process.

4. If you already have a personal account, click "Login". Once logged in, users can access the books from "Institution Library" tab to check out the books and start reading. Institution Library shows the listing of all the titles the Institution has subscribed to.

5. Click on "Check Out" to read an ebook
