III. Reading comprehension: Answer the questions based on the text below. (10%)

America is bounded by the Atlantic Ocean in the east and the Pacific Ocean in the west, while Canada lies to the north and Mexico to the south. The country has a mixture of geographical formations – high mountains and deep canyons, rolling plains, huge forests, deserts, and great rivers. The more important mountains are the Appalachians in the east and the Rocky Mountains in the west and the largest rivers are the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Colorado, and the Columbia. There are fifty states in America. The two newest states – Alaska and Hawaii – are not linked to the mainland geographically.

The population of America is over 250 million and is made up of many different nationalities, including the Irish, Italians, African Americans, and Asians. The reason for this is that America – like Australia – was colonized and populated by large numbers of immigrants. Most people migrated in the hope of finding a better life, attracted by the “American Dream.” For the African Americans, however, it was a very different story. They were brought from Africa in chains and sold like animals in slave markets. The treatment they received was often unbelievably cruel.

  - B. They both have large immigrant populations
  - C. They are both islands
  - D. They both have a population of over 250 million
34. For most immigrants the “American Dream” meant:
- A. owning a house and a car
  - B. becoming a farmer
  - C. buying a slave
  - D. the hope of a better life
35. How was the experience of African Americans different from other immigrants?
- A. They lived in a different region
  - B. They adjusted better
  - C. They were brought, and treated, as slaves
