

Welcome to PressReader, Fu Jen Catholic University

The service is now live at your library. We're thrilled to be working with you closely to bring the world's best digital newspapers and magazines to your readers. In just a few simple steps, your reader can begin discovering stories that matter in a contactless, digital way.

First things first, ensure the service is working

1. Connect to Fu Jen Catholic University Wi-Fi, and launch PressReader via either pressreader.com or the PressReader app
2. Check if you see your institution welcome message
3. Try opening a publication
4. If you run into any trouble or one of these steps is missing, please let us know right away.
5. (Recommended) Register an account, and login with your various devices

Successful connection will look like...
