II. Cloze: Choose the best answer to fill in each blank.

Perfectly round with a delicious green sheen, a pair of melons from the town of Yubari in northern Japan 21 for an eye-watering 2.7 million yen (€20,260) at the first fruit auction of the season at Sapporo wholesale market earlier this week. Yubari is famous for the quality of its melons, 22 across the country as a delicacy and a symbol of the upcoming summer. The melons were purchased by Hokkaido Products Ltd., which announced that they would be divided into ten equal segments and sent to customers 23 in a lottery. The president of the company told local media that he wanted to "cheer people up" 24 the ongoing hardships brought on by the coronavirus pandemic. The price the company paid 25 the two melons was significantly higher than the maximum of €900 that last year's prime specimens went for, but it was significantly less than the record of €37,527 paid for a pair of the fruit in 2019.
